

Mumbles Walk – 12 July 2026

Approx: 10 miles

From Bracelet Bay head west along the coast path to Pwlldu Bay.

Coffee stop at Caswell Bay.

Lunch stop at Pwlldu Bay.

Return to coast path and take path uphill signed for Bishopston. This becomes Pwlldu Lane. Turn right onto Pyle Rd continue ahead to join Oldway, go left at junction with Kilfield Rd.

Turn right onto Lime Kiln Lane, turn right on Longacre then left at sign for Clyne Common. This path joins Manselfield Rd, go right and cross on to Reigit Lane. Ignore the turning on the right to Mansel Drive and carry on past the end of the houses and onto a footpath that comes to a gate to Clyne Common.

Continue straight ahead along the path, cross a boggy area and turn right in the direction of the red houses ahead and then in the direction of two mobile phone masts. The path becomes indistinct in places and finally crosses a boggy area to a swing gate. Follow the path to the road and carry straight on.

The path joins Highpool Lane.

Look out on your right for Paraclete Congregational Church. Dylan Thomas' uncle was the preacher here, and as a child Dylan was forced to attend Morning Service, Sunday School and sometimes Evening Service.

Drop down the grassy slope to the road and cross over the Mumbles Road in front of the White Rose. Turn right and walk along the sea front.* Plenty of eateries along the front.

Take the footpath on right by MK at The George and before George Bank/Clifton Terrace onto Mumbles Hill. Follow path passing trig point and return to start of walk.

Alternative route: continue along the sea front towards the lifeboat station. Follow signs for the Wales Coast Path, climb steps to first car park. Continue ahead to the large car park.
